

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1888-02-15

Letter from Maggie [Margaret Muir Reid] to John Muir, 1888 Feb 15.

Margaret Muir Reid

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Reid, Margaret Muir, "Letter from Maggie [Margaret Muir Reid] to John Muir, 1888 Feb 15." (1888). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1749.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1749>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Center, Tex. Feb 13th 1888

Dear Bro John

I Thank you for your great Kindness, which I can never repay.

I recieved your letter saturday with money order enclosed for 100^{dol} for which I Thank you. I hope I can return it soon. May those more prosperous days you speak of. be not long in coming - if they ^{ever} do I shall allways feel that you did all you could to bring them about.

It is something new for John to lie awake nights worrying about his affairs, or anything else. but if all this trouble be the means of 01295 bringing about a new & better state of affairs. it may be for the best. and however little we possess. when we are able to say we "owe no man anything" I shall be grateful & happy.

and this world is not all.

I hope this will find you all well. I am afraid from what I hear that you will be tempted to work too hard on your book.

Love to Louie and all the rest.

affectionately
Maggie